Keepin' It Real: Diverse Students Speak

Event will be held at Onondaga Community College

Gordon Great Room

Gordon Student Center, building "G" on the campus map

Time: 7:00-8:30 pm

Date: Thursday March 11, 2010

This is a free informational program for high school students and their parents as well as for college transfer students.

You'll hear why northern New York is such a great destination for higher education and how the four colleges form a diverse educational community with endless opportunities for students.

A panel of diverse students will "tell it like it is" and share how they excel both in and out of the classroom.

- 7:00 Welcome
- 7:05 Meet the admissions personnel from Clarkson University, SUNY Canton, SUNY Potsdam and St. Lawrence University
- 7:15 Student panel
- 8:00 Open exchange
- 8:25 Closing remarks

Plan to attend and see what educational opportunities are offered for you.
